NOTICE OF MEETING: TUESDAY, April 26, 1977, 7:00 p.m.

BREWTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Speaker: H. EUGENE PETTIS, Flomaton, Ala.
Vice President of this Society

We are pleased to have Eugene Pettis speak to us again and relate more about his work in the Flomaton area with oral history. He will also give a slide-talk presentation of the Tri-City Bicentennial Celebration, and share some "new" materials and techniques for stimulating interest among youths in family and local history. Eugene has made several presentations in Flomaton on behalf of our museum project. This is our first meeting on the fourth Tuesday of the month and we hope that by changing our meeting date attendance will be even better. Come and bring a friend.

Last month the program presented by Ronald A. Stratton of Pittsfield, Massachusetts was filmed to be presented on Boston's WBZ-TV on April 27. This program was to be a part of their family-life series to encourage young people to become more interested in their family's ancestry and thereby build deeper family ties. The television crew followed Ron through his genealogical trip to Tallahassee and Jay, Florida and up into Conecuh and Monroe Counties of Alabama and back to Brewton for our meeting. Ron, his wife, and the television crew could not have been more complimentary of the Southern hospitality shown them on their tour.

THE MARCH QUARTERLY IS LATE, will be out as soon as possible.

MUSEUM FUND PROGRESS - Many of our members are making personal contacts on behalf of the museum project and are receiving much encouragement from the townspeople. We want and need the backing of every person in this county for this project which will mean so much to the students of this area. Miss Rita Jane Boykin is carrying our cause before the W.S. Neal School students who have at this time raised $146.32 for the museum. The students were very enthusiastic. The project was presented to the Brewton Lions Club on April 11th by your President. Assistance from the Brewton City Council will be solicited at its next session. TRUE GREATNESS

A man is as great as the dreams he dreams,
     As great as the love he bears;
 As great as the values he redeems,
     And the happiness he shares.
 A man is as great as the thoughts he thinks,
     As the worth he has attained;
 As the fountains at which his spirit drinks
     And the insight he has gained.
 A man is as great as the truth he speaks,
     As great as the help he gives,
 As great as the destiny he seeks,
     As great as the life he lives.

SEVENTEEN SECRETS TO SUCCESS

Keep your temper to yourself.
 Give your enthusiasm to everybody.
 Be yourself, forget yourself, become genuinely interested in the other guy.
 Be fair, honest, friendly--and you'll be admired and liked.
 Make other people feel important.
 Count your assets and stamp out self-pity.
 Meet the other person at his/her own level.
 Put your smile power to work.
 Keep moving.
 Keep trying.
 Give the gift of heart.
 Get off to a good start in anything you do.
 Forgive yourself if you fail.
 Be lavish with kindness.
 Overwhelm people with your charm, not your power.
 Keep your promises.
 Be an optimist.

 Of all the unhappy people in the world, the unhappiest are those who have not found something they want to do.
