Memorial To:

Mrs. Georgia Booker Parker, 102, native of Monroe County, Alabama, died July 14, 1983.

Mrs. Parker was a school teacher for 46 years in Monroe County, Escambia County, Alabama and Escambia County, Florida. She also was the first principal of the original East Brewton School.

Among the prominent citizens Mrs. Parker taught was Reuben Askew, former governor of Florida, whom she recalled as "a good student."

Mrs. Parker was a member of the First Baptist Church of Pensacola, the Music Club, Order of Eastern Star, Chapter 9, and the Retired Teachers Association.

Mrs. Parker was born on May 24, 1881. Her life was spent in the joy of teaching. In her words, "I invested in humanity."

A Birthday. One of our most devoted and beloved members celebrated a birthday last week with a few of her close friends. She is a lovely and courageous lady and has influenced our Society in many ways. Our Birthday lady is Ms. Sallie Davison, 96 years old.

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY, MS. SALLIE!"
