

ESCAMBIA ECHOES

Escambia County Historical Society newsletter
September, 1984

MEETING: Tuesday, September 25, 1984
TIME: 7:00 p.m.
PLACE: Thomas E. McMillan Museum, JDJC campus
PROGRAM: Tom Neal

We are fortunate to have Mr. Tom Neal to present our program for September. Mr. Neal will speak on the history of the Presbyterian Church. This is a very timely subject, since the Brewton First Presbyterian Church has just celebrated its Centennial. Let's have a good turnout, and remember, guests are welcome.

QUERIES WELCOMED

We have just received another answer to an inquiry in the quarterly, and this should encourage those who are interested in genealogical research to send in queries concerning families or historical incidents. We will publish your query and, in the case of historical information, will try to send the query on to someone who can answer it. Send to The Escambia County Historical Society, P. O. Box 276, Brewton, AL 36427.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to the people of Atmore for their fine new Atmore Public Library, dedicated Sunday, Sept. 9. Among the features of this beautiful facility is the Alabama Room, which houses the rare book collection, all Alabama reference, history and genealogical books plus related exhibits. More about the library will be published later.
