

ESCAMBIA ECHOES
Newsletter of the
Escambia County Historical Society
December, 1984

MEETING: Tuesday, December 4, 1984
TIME: 7:00 p.m.
PLACE: Thomas E. McMillan Museum at Jefferson Davis
Junior College, Brewton
PROGRAM: Joe Wingard

We are delighted to have Joe Wingard of Andalusia as our guest speaker and musician Tuesday night. An English teacher, he is also an accomplished musician and writer. He is past president of the Covington County Historical Society and much in demand for talks and presentations.

Following the program, Rita Jane Boykin has planned a special social hour, and we will gather around the Christmas tree where there will be gifts for everyone. By the way, we do NOT bring a gift for exchange.

The meeting date has been set early this month so as not to interfere with busy holiday schedules. So come on, bring a guest, and initiate your holiday season with a good time of fellowship.

BOOKS

Copies of A HISTORY OF ESCAMBIA COUNTY, ALA., by Annie C. Waters, are still available at the county probate office for $25, or may be ordered by sending $27.50 to The Escambia County Historical Society, P. O. Box 276, Brewton, AL 36427.

Remember, the history would make an excellent Christmas gift, and if you have a whole family on your list, no matter how large, the book would give much information and enjoyment to all members, not only now, but for years to come. No shopping around, hunting sizes, hustle and bustle -- a real nice gift and sure to please. Think about it!
