BREWTON CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

Special events are already being held in conjunction with the Brewton Centennial, with the full week of celebration set to begin April 21.

As you know, the Historical Society will place a marker at the grave of Edmund T. Brewton during Centennial Week.

The Society will also have a display of museum-type clothing and other articles in a window of Robbins and McGowin, so watch for this during the week of celebration.

Our next quarterly will be mailed just prior to the Centennial celebration.
