June, 1986

MEETING: Tuesday, June 24, 1986
TIME: 7:00 p.m.
PLACE: Thomas E. McMillan Museum on Jefferson Davis Junior
College campus, Brewton
PROGRAM: DONNA LOWREY REVEL

In keeping with the current interest nationwide on the Statue of Liberty, we are happy to have Mrs. Donna Lowrey Revel present our June program on MISS LIBERTY. Don't miss this informative program and remember, guests are welcome.

VETERANS MEMORIAL

We commend Willie Evans, chairman, and members of the Veterans Memorial Committee on their plans to construct a memorial to Escambia County veterans on the lawn of the courthouse in Brewton. Funds are being raised for the memorial, which is estimated to cost $25,000.

FREE CLASSES

Dr. George McCormick, president of Jefferson Davis Junior College, has announced that persons over 60 may now take any classes offered at the college free of charge. For more information, telephone (Brewton) 867-4832.

BOOK REPRINTS

Carolyn Emerich, Society historian, has prepared the following list of book reprints, all valuable historical and genealogical reference tools, that are presently available from the Reprint Company. The Society feels that expenditures for books should not be made at present until our newspaper microfilming project is paid for. If you would like to purchase one of the books for the Society to place in the Alabama Room at JDJC, please let us know.

If you wish to order your own copies, send check, plus $1.50 handling for first book and 25 cents for each additional book to: The Reprint Company, Publishers, P.O. Box 5401, Spartanburg, S.C. 29304.
