

ESCAMBIA ECHOES

NOVEMBER 1999

PLEASE NOTE: THERE WILL NOT BE A MEETING OF THE ESCAMBIA COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY IN NOVEMBER 1999.

If you were not able to come with us on our visit to the reservation of the Poarch Band of Creek Indians in Atmore in October you missed a special event. After a very interesting presentation by Gail Thrower, we visited the candy shop and the gift shop. We visited the Charles Lawrence Moore House which was listed with the Alabama Register of Landmarks & Heritage on May 19, 1999. We visited the Creek Indian & Judson Cemetery which was also listed on the register.

The Society extends sympathy to the family of member Juliaette C. Findley who passed away in November 1999.

December 10th is the anniversary of the creation of Escambia County in 1868. The county will be 131 years old. It was given the name from the river which the Creek Indians called "Escambia" meaning "clear water".

This year's Escambia County Historical Society Christmas party will be held on Friday December 17th. For additional details please phone Ed Seward, President of Society at 850/867-2797 or Ann Biggs-Williams, Vice President of Society at 850/867-2445 or E-mail the Society at EscHistSoc@acet.net.

There is a feature story in November 17, 1999 Brewton Standard entitled "Navy couldn't shoot down Merritt's dream." It focused on Paul Merritt's love of airplanes and flying and mentions that he is an active member of the Escambia County Historical Society.

Nominating committee appointed by President of Society Ed Seward is: Sissy Horton, Paul Merritt, Elvira McMillan and Ann Biggs-Williams. The committee will present a slate of the proposed officers for a two-year term at the January meeting. If you have suggestions, or nominees, please share the names with one of the committee members as soon as possible.

PLEASE NOTE. The submission deadline for articles and pre-publication orders for "The Heritage of Escambia County Alabama" is now March 31, 2000. The book committee invites you to publish your family history free in the book. On the reverse side of this newsletter you will find information on "How to Write and Submit Your Story and Photographs." For more information you may write to: Escambia County Heritage Book Committee, Post Office Box 472, Brewton, AL 36427.

COOKBOOKS. We still have cookbooks available. Maybe you could consider giving one as a gift for the coming season. Contact us at the address shown below if interested. Remember this is a fund raising effort for the Society.

ESCAMBIA ECHOES

NOVEMBER 1999

PLEASE NOTE: THERE WILL NOT BE A MEETING OF THE ESCAMBIA COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY IN NOVEMBER 1999.

If you were not able to come with us on our visit to the reservation of the Poarch Band of Creek Indians in Atmore in October you missed a special event. After a very interesting presentation by Gail Thrower, we visited the candy shop and the gift shop. We visited the Charles Lawrence Moore House which was listed with the Alabama Register of Landmarks & Heritage on May 19, 1999. We visited the Creek Indian & Judson Cemetery which was also listed on the register.

The Society extends sympathy to the family of member Juliaette C. Findley who passed away in November 1999.

December 10th is the anniversary of the creation of Escambia County in 1868. The county will be 131 years old. It was given the name from the river which the Creek Indians called "Escambia" meaning "clear water".

This year's Escambia County Historical Society Christmas party will be held on Friday December 17th. For additional details please phone Ed Seward, President of Society at 850/867-2797 or Ann Biggs-Williams, Vice President of Society at 850/867-2445 or E-mail the Society at EscHistSoc@acet.net.

There is a feature story in November 17, 1999 Brewton Standard entitled "Navy couldn't shoot down Merritt's dream." It focused on Paul Merritt's love of airplanes and flying and mentions that he is an active member of the Escambia County Historical Society.

Nominating committee appointed by President of Society Ed Seward is: Sissy Horton, Paul Merritt, Elvira McMillan and Ann Biggs-Williams. The committee will present a slate of the proposed officers for a two-year term at the January meeting. If you have suggestions, or nominees, please share the names with one of the committee members as soon as possible.

PLEASE NOTE. The submission deadline for articles and pre-publication orders for "The Heritage of Escambia County Alabama" is now March 31, 2000. The book committee invites you to publish your family history free in the book. On the reverse side of this newsletter you will find information on "How to Write and Submit Your Story and Photographs." For more information you may write to: Escambia County Heritage Book Committee, Post Office Box 472, Brewton, AL 36427.

COOKBOOKS. We still have cookbooks available. Maybe you could consider giving one as a gift for the coming season. Contact us at the address shown below if interested. Remember this is a fund raising effort for the Society.

LOOKING AHEAD:

November 25 Thanksgiving

December 7 Pearl Harbor Day

December 17 Escambia County Historical Society Christmas Party

December 25 Merry Christmas!!!!

Address: Escambia County Historical Society, Post Office Box 276, Brewton, AL 36427

E-Mail address: EscHistSoc@acet.net

Telephone: 334/867-7332 (there is an answering machine if we miss your call)

Editors: Louise Stone, 1929 Grape Farm Road, Brewton, AL 36426 and Lynn Wixon, 6424 Smith Wixon Lane, Milton, FL 32570

ESCAMBIA COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY
POST OFFICE BOX 276
BREWTON, AL 36427

BULK MAIL
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
BREWTON, AL 36426
PERMIT #99
NOT PROFIT

ADDRESS SERVICE REQUESTED