

Flomaton Centennial Scrapbook

Catholic Church

Organized around 1913, it was on the lot where Dick Fore's home stands. That building was sold after the 1929 flood damaged it.

By that time, the membership had dropped to about 8 parishioners. In 1940, a new building was erected on Houston Street with Father John Horgan as priest.

The building is now occupied by the Greater Revelation Missionary Baptist Church.
